MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

MACRO AND INDUSTRY ENVIRONMENT

In the first half of 2021, the pandemic was effectively controlled in China and the economy recovered steadily. GDP grew 12.7% year-on-year, and total retail sales of consumer goods increased by 23%. However, the extremely uneven global pandemic situation and international commodity prices fluctuation brought pressure on domestic industries. The overall economic environment is one of both opportunities and challenges. The instant noodle industry, in which the Group operates, gradually returned to normal consumption in the first half of 2021 compared to the special period of pandemic last year. The beverage industry, on the other hand, showed an upward trend. Consumers are now more health awareness in the post-pandemic era. With the pandemic under control, outdoor consumption has gradually recovered while home consumption habits are continuing. The diversification of consumption scenarios, new models such as O2O and community group purchase have brought to the Group new challenges and opportunities.

BUSINESS REVIEW

The Group continued its established strategy of “Consolidate, Reform and Develop” with deeper dig into mass market, expansion into high-end market for the middle-class, and set foot in the new rural market. The Group serves consumers with different demands through our products with variety of flavours and multi-sized packaging targeting different scenarios. The Group enhances its brand penetration on all fronts through uni-marketing and full media reach, as well as strengthening store coverage and service efforts. According to Kantar’s “Brand Footprint in Asia 2021” report, Master Kong was ranked top tier with brand penetration rate of 84.3% in 2020.

The Group’s revenue for the first half of 2021 rose by 7.47% year-on-year to RMB35,396 million. Revenue from instant noodle declined by 14.67% year-on-year, while revenue from beverage grew by 26.45% year-on-year. Gross profit margin for the period decreased by 2.38 percentage points year-on-year to 31.05%. Distribution cost as a percentage of revenue increased by 1.68 percentage points year-on-year to 21.42%. EBITDA declined by 12.57% year-on-year to RMB4,517 million; profit attributable to shareholders of the Company declined by 14.50% year-on-year to RMB2,035 million due to lower gross profit margin and higher distribution cost ratio. Basic earnings per share decreased by RMB6.15 cents to RMB36.18 cents.

INSTANT NOODLE BUSINESS

According to Nielsen data, in the first half of 2021, the overall instant noodle industry experienced a 7.7% year-on-year decline in sales volume and a 7.3% year-on-year decline in sales value. During the period, Master Kong held a 45.4% market share of sales volume¹, up 2.5 percentage points year-on-year, and a 47.9% market share of sales value¹, up 2.1 percentage points year-on-year, placing it firmly in first place in the market.

Revenue from the Group’s instant noodle business for the first half of 2021 was RMB12,722 million, representing a year-on-year decline of 14.67% and accounting for 35.94% of the Group’s total revenue. The reasons for these deviations are explained below.

Code provision A.4.1

Code provision A.4.1 provides that non-executive directors should be appointed for a specific term, subject to re-election. However, the articles of association of our Company provide that all the Directors are subject to retirement by rotation at least once every three years and at each annual general meeting, one-third of the Directors for the time being or, if the number is not a multiple of three, then, the number nearest to but not less than one-third, shall retire from office by rotation and may offer themselves for re-election. As such, the Board considers that sufficient measures have been put in place to ensure our Company’s corporate governance practice in this aspect provides sufficient protection for the interests of shareholders to a standard commensurate with that of the CG code.

Code Provision A.4.2

According to code provision A.4.2, each director (including those with a specific appointment period) shall be subject to retirement by rotation at least once every three years. According to the Company’s articles of association, the chairman of the Board is not subject to retirement by rotation. He is not included in the number of directors who are required to retire each year. The Board believes that the continuity of the leadership of the chairman of the Board is critical to the stability of the Group’s development and the planning, formulation and implementation of long-term strategies and business plans. Accordingly, the Board considers that although the provisions of the above rules deviate from Code Provision A.4.2, it is in the best interests of the Company.

We will periodically review and improve our corporate governance practices with reference to the latest corporate governance developments.
